DETAILED ACTION

Priority

The later-filed application must be an application for a patent for an invention which is also disclosed in the prior application (the parent or original nonprovisional application or provisional application). The disclosure of the invention in the parent application and in the later-filed application must be sufficient to comply with the requirements of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112. See Transco Products, Inc. v. Performance Contracting, Inc., 38 F.3d 551, 32 USPQ2d 1077 (Fed. Cir. 1994).

The disclosure of the prior-filed application, Application No. 09/785,049, fails to provide adequate support or enablement in the manner provided by the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112 for claim 3 of this Application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tou et al (US Patent 6,032,163, hereinafter Tou).

Tou teaches a click-and-drag method in an electronic device including the steps of:
determining the position of a mouse cursor on a text object, if the cursor is over a paragraph, move the paragraph the same amount as the click-and-drag movement of the mouse, if the cursor is over the top of a line, move the line the same amount as the click-and-drag movement of the mouse, and if the cursor is over the left side of a line, adjust the individual left indent of the line the same amount as the click-and-drag movement of the mouse, as Tou discloses click-and-drag manipulation of onscreen "objects" such as text paragraphs, text lines, and margins, as seen at col. 9, lines 11-28 and col. 7, lines 8-22.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The cited prior art pertains to electronic document editing and the state of the art in general.
